Morrison's pork chops. Price range £4.79 - £6.06 per kg

Because Morrison's do not sell on the internet yet, I took a different approach and actually visited my local store. They sensibly carry only British with 2 ranges and 2 prices so no confusion there. My main complaint was that I could see no real difference between the quality of the £4.79 and the £6.06 for a difference for £1.27 I would like to have been given at least a good reason for this.

Morrison's pork shoulder, leg and loin joints. Price range £4.54 - £4.70 per kg

Again all British good product description well butchered just a little boring is my only comment.
